

January 8, 1981

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

AMERICAN FOUNDRYMEN'S SOCIETY

There was a meeting on Friday, January 2nd 1981 at Drexel University with Professor Diran Apelian, Jack Witherington, E.X. Enderlein, Sr., Frank Clifford, and Herman Mandel.

After a thorough discussion of various scholarship goals the meeting was devoted to the selection of the Scholarship Awards.

William B. Coleman Scholarship Award at Penn State University - $750.00

Richard D. Morgan
R.D. #1 Box 25
Hegins, Pa. 17938

College Address: 415 W. College Avenue
State College, Pa.

Dr. Draper has been advised of the selection for the Coleman Award.

Drexel University Scholarship Selections Were:

Four Scholarships - $600.00 Each

Blair D. London
Norman J. Clayton
William E. Frazier

H. G. Enderlein Scholarship Award - $600.00 Each

Paul Wisniewski

Total - $3,150.00 All Scholarships

In accordance with past discussions with various directors and committee chairmen it was decided and suggested to recommend to the Board of Directors that we make definite changes in our Scholarship Committee with various tenures. Also, that the Scholarship Fund hirer outside financial advisors. Either verbal or formal recommendations will be submitted by Jack Witherington.

Respectfully submitted,
Herman E. Mandel

HEM/so

Mailed.Copies To: Kunkelman, Boyd, Apelian, Umble, Witherington,
Enderlein Sr., and Clifford